TOWN NEWS.

The selectmen have sold the town farm to Justin Heath for $1100. The McLain children returned home Monday from Stanstead, P. Q., where they have been visiting for the past two

The Sheffield creamery will sell the buttermilk at auction Tuesday, April 7. George Barber is suffering with a sore hand with fears of erysipelas.

Valley Lodge, I. O. G. T., will have a conundrum supper this Wednesday even-Miss Edith Lasure, who has been visiting at F. I. Sargent's, goes this week to Northfield to visit friends.

SOUTH RYEGATE. Miss Mubel Hall returned from her visit in Barre last Friday. F. R. Mills of Wollaston, Mass., who has been in town for several days on account of the illness of his father, returned last Monday.

Samuel Mills, who has been sick with pneumonia, is still in a very weakened condition, but hopes are entertained of his recovery. Mrs. Mills is convalescing from the grip.

Miss Eliza Wilson is home for a short vacation from her school at Wells River. Mrs. C. P. Wilson will not return here to reside. She has decided to remain in Manchester, N. H., and her son and daughter will go to live with her.

David Lumsden sold his personal property at auction Friday and has moved to the Whitcher place in Groton. Arthur Lang finished work in the Gibson store Tuesday and will go to St. lohnsbury, where he has secured employment. His brother, Milo Lang of Topsham, will take his place.

Mr. and Mrs. James Halley are quite ill with the prevailing distemper. Horace Thomas of Lansing, Mich.

made a short visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Thomas, last week, on his way to Florida.

NORTH DANVILLE.

Death of Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald. Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald passed away at her home in this village early Monday morning, Mar. 16, at the advanced age of 92 years and seven months. She had been a long time resident of this town and had won many friends. Although for several years a great sufferer she had borne it very patiently and had a pleasant word and smile for everyone. She leaves one daughter, Mary Fitzgerald, and three sons, Andrew of this place, Bernard and Peter of Colorado. Andrew and Mary have been untiring in their efforts to make the last days of both their father and mother as pleasant and comfortable as possible. Funeral services were held Wednesday, March 18, at St. Aloysius church, St. Johnsbury, conducted by Rev. J. A. Lynch, assisted by Rev. Fr. Pontbriand of Lyndonville.

Andrew Fitzgerald returned a few days since from a short business trip to Bos-

L. W. Smith, the butter-maker, has moved from Mrs. J. Green's to Sally Randall's house. Tief Hall has moved from Erastus Sherburne's house to Mrs. W. L. Swett's where he will work on the farm. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bailey were in Sewport recently, to attend the funeral

George Varney, who has been ill with gnp for several weeks, is convalescing. A. M. McFarland has recently put a steam engine and boiler into his sawmill and will utilize the sawdust for tuel. He has it nearly ready to start and has a large pile of logs to saw out.

I. A. Ranney was at Charles Sanborn's over Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid will serve new sugar at the church vestry Wednesday evening, April S.

H. W. Varnum of Burlington visited relatives here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Kelsey of St. Johnsbury visited his brother, H. A. Kelsey, and William Clement, also Mrs. Kelsey's brother, A. M. McFarland, the past

Arthur Sanborn, who has worked for George Kingsbury at Morse's Mills the year, is now working for A. M. McFarland.

C. B. Stevens purchased a fine pair of dapple grey mares that weigh nearly 3000 pounds, the past week, of Gilman Brothers of St. Johnsbury, for $450 and sold them Saturday to T. N. Vail for Mrs. Abbie Stevens has been suffering with the grip, but we are glad to say, is now on the gain.

M. J. Hopkins is moving into the house he recently purchased of Erastus

Dean has charge of the work. L. A. Ranney is sick at Charles San-Charles Wormword moves this week from George C. Cary's farm to Henry Wilson's farm in Danville. WEST BURKE.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Graves of Barton visited at C. J. Trefren's over Sunday.

Mrs. A. W. Brockway has just returned from Boston, where she has been to select her stock of spring millinery. Mr. and Mrs. David Porter of St. Johnsbury are visiting relatives.

W. F. Holtham has moved into the S. A. Nelson house, which has recently been purchased by W. W. Coc.

L. H. Saxley has moved his family to

W. H. Bailey died March 29, of peri tonitis, at the home of his son, Josiah Bailey, at Burke. Mr. Bailey was 89 years of age. The funeral was held at the house Tuesday afternoon. WEST CONCORD.

Mrs. Francis Chapman has returned

ome from Whitefield, where she has been visiting her mother. Her sister came with her to spend a few days here. Miss Susie Dodge is visiting at Mrs. orin Ford's. Miss Anna Rowe of Danville is visiting at Mrs. F. H. Joslyn's.

Ervin Ranney, a former teacher here, visited in this vicinity the past week. The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Miner Carpenter Thursday afternoon, at Miss Mabel Goozy of Johnson is work-ng at L. S. Richards'. The Whist Club will meet with Mr.

and Mrs. George Hastings Friday even-

LOWER WATERFORD. Mrs. E. Bowman and Mrs. F. A. Cut-

Willis Bradshaw of Lyndon is visiting friends in town.

Stillman Cutting invited about 30 friends to a sugar party at his home Monday afternoon. Sugar was served and a musical program was carried out. All present report a fine time.

Fred A. Blodgett, a resident of this town for 22 years, died at his home Tuesday night, March 24, after a long and painful illness. Mr. Blodgett was the son of Philander and Eliza (Curtis) Blodgett. He was born at Stratford, N. H., Oct. 16, 1831. February 12, 1874, he married Alma Blodgett of this place, who survives him with three children. The funeral sevrices were held at the church Friday at 1 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Grant of East St. Johnsbury officiating.

TCINDOES.

Death of Former Pastor.

Rev. H. R. Titus, pastor emeritus of the Congregational church at Ticonderoga, N. Y., and a former pastor here, died at the former place, Thursday morning. He was born at Douglas, Mass, 46 years ago and was ordained to the gospel ministry at Wilmington, in 1882. He has also held pastorates at Wilmington, Alburgh Springs, and Vergennes. He was a Mason of the 32d degree of Scottish rites, a Knights Templar and had been high priest of Carvillon Chapter, 290, and past grand of the Ethan Allen Lodge, I. O. O. F., 630, and had served as grand chaplain of the Grand Lodge of the state of New York. Mr. Titus as a preacher had wonderful power of analysis; he was a pastor of untiring earnestness and sympathy and a citizen leeply interested in public affairs. Somewhat more than a year ago he became afflicted with a peculiar spinal trouble from which he had since been a great sufferer and which had baffled the skill of physicians and although everything possible was done to prolong his life extreme suffering gradually overcame his naturally strong constitution. He leaves a wife, three brothers and a father.

Perley Phelps started last Thursday for Iowa, where he has work.

Ira St. Jock and Perley and Floyd Hart well spent Sunday at A. L. Guthrie's. A large number attended the masquerade and promenade given by the senior class in Academy Hall Friday evening. There were some very pretty costumes and the music furnished by Young's orchestra was much enjoyed. About $22 were

The funeral of Mrs. Emily Buffum Moore was held at her late home in North Monroe last Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, Rev. George Goodrich officiating. For several years before her marriage Mrs. Moore made ber home in this place and during that time she won the love and respect of a large circle of friends who extend their sincerest sympathy to her bereaved husband. Among those in town to attend the funeral were Ezra Day of Worcester, Mass., and Albert

Mrs. Kate Pearl has been spending a few days with friends in Danville.

Mrs. Alice Fields and son Lyman are spending a few weeks in Guildhall. Miss Pearl Field was the guest of Mrs. Hamilton Stuart in West Barnet a few

Miss Alice Moore is spending a week in Woodsville with her sister, Mrs. Frank

Miss Bertha Renfrew of Bradford has been the guest of Miss Jean Duncan the past week.

The river drivers arrived Sunday and have placed their tests in the wood yard near Robert Kelley's house.

Mrs. Grace Orr returned last Tuesday from the hospital at Hanover, where she underwent a successful operation for appendicitis. Charles Sillars of Boston spent Sunday at A. L. Guthrie's.

Church Meigs of Malcolm, Iowa, has been the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Seth Ford, for several days.

Eugene Field of Irasburg spent Sunday with his family.

P. B. Van Dyke has had a telephone put in the "Brick House." Mrs. Daniel Paris of Lyndon, accompanied by her daughter Ruth, spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kimball. The Ladies' Missionary society met last week with Mrs. John Bishop. A. Lincoln Kirk, reader and impersonator, will give an entertainment in the church this evening, April 1, under the auspices of the Christian Budeavor soci-

Kirk comes with the best of recommendations, and it is hoped there will be a large audience. Mrs. Emily Peck is making extensive repairs on her store building. James ety. Admission 25 and 15 cents. Mr.

G. F. Winch is making repairs on the house which he recently purchased of Jimmie Hill.

A. C. Hooker has sold his two North Main street houses to O. E. Johnson and wife for $3200. I. N. R. Cross has sold his Herseyville house to C. A. Stanford for $1500. The selectmen have just bought a new piano for the new town hall. The hall will be finished with new scenery and be ready for occupancy in about two weeks. Mrs. E. R. Fletcher, wife of the well known granite dealer, died Thursday forenoon of appendicitis. She was 33 years old and leaves a husband and two

Leslie Newton is at home from Burlington U. V. M. for a short vacation. Charles Gould has moved his family to Easton, Mass., where he expects to work for H. Swasey. Charles Cole commenced Monday to run the milk route to South Walden. The Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. Emma Jennison Thursday after-

The sugar season seems to be a decided failure so far.

LYNDONVILLE.

Mertie, the three year old daughter of day morning of scarlet fever and pneumonia. The body was placed in the cemetery at the Center the day of her death. The bereaved parents have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire com-

lèvelands BAKING POWDER

Always perfect, never varies, gives uniform results.

"I have tested all the leaders. Cleveland's gives the best results."

Seventy Club Meeting.

The birthday of Mrs. Philura M. Hoyt was celebrated at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry E. Byron, Thursday

alternoon, by a meeting of the Seventy Club. Eleven members were present, and after the usual devotional exercises

each member related some interesting anecdote, incident or poem, and letters o'clock Mrs. Bryon served refreshments consisting of sandwiches, tea, cake, ice ream, fruit and confections. Guests of the club on this occasion were Rev. J. M.

Frost, Mrs. I. T. Borland and Mrs. W

A. Wells. Strawberry shrub was served

Mrs. Hoyt was the recipient of beautiful cut and potted flowers, and other gifts. She was very happy on this her 83d birthday, as were all present, and the afternoon passed pleasantly.

Mrs. Hoyt was born in Marshfield,

March 26, 1820. At the tourth of July celebration at Cabot when she was 16 vears of age she sang the "Ode to Science," and she sang it again very

ODE TO SCIENCE.

The morning sun shone from the Bast And spread her glories to the West. All nations with her beams are blessed Where'er her radiant light appears.

So science spreads her lurid ray O'er lands which long in darkness lay. She visits fair Columbia And sits her sons among the stars.

Fair free om her attendance waits To bless the portals of her gates. To crown the young and rising states

The British yoke, and the Gaelic chain Was urged upon our sons in vain. All haught tyrants we disdain. And shout "Long live America."

The lecture-recital given by Prof. H. J

Crumplin Thursday evening in Pythian

Hall was worthy of a much larger audience. Those present enjoyed an in-anecdotes on the "History of Piano

Music." This subject was preceded by a talk on ancient music, in which was outlined the development of music by the Egyptians, Grecians and Romans from the crude beginnings of the Chinese of the dance on music, as shown by the

was contributed by the lecturer as fol-

The music, illustrative of the lecture

In explanation of the last number

Prof. Crumplin said that as the first waltz composed by Strauss was called the Blue Danube waltz, he named the first one he composed after coming to America, the Blue Passumpsic waltz.

Other musical selections were furnished by Prof. Crumplin, Paul Simanton, loseph Chency, Arthur Hawkinson and Miss Ethel Lishness of Newport spent

The Ladies' Industrial club meets with

Mrs. Florence Underwood is spending

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Finn entertained

John Smith and wife, who drove here

Mrs. O. S. Cogswell and her daughter,

Mrs. Harry Waite, are home from their

Miss Grace Montgomery entertains a few of her friends at a card party at her

Orange Roberts moved from C. W.

Paddleford's house on Harrison avenue to M. I. Caldbeck's house on School street, Monday. Mrs. Paddleford moves

Carl Hovey is visiting at his brother to his tenement vacated by Mr. Roberts.

Mrs. C. H. Meffatt Thursday alternoon.

last week Miss Charlotte Chase.

few days in Hyde Park.

from Littleton, over Sunday.

visit to friends in Wolcott.

home tonight.

Crumplin.

gavotte, minuet, polka and waltz.

Prof. Crumplin's Lecture.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hastings receiv- structive lecture, with many delightful

Gavotte, Minuet,

Blue Danube Waltz,

At Summerville.

Blue Passumpsic Waltz,

Polka.

sweetly at the gathering. Thursday.

from a pitcher 100 years old.

were read from absent members. At five

Beulah M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Hayward, died on Monday, March 23, after an illness of only four weeks, with pneumonia. She was 14 years etage. The tuneral was held on Thursday and the burial took place at Westmore. Fred Switser from Woodsville visited friends in town last week. C. W. Thompson lost three or four pails of syrup from his sugar camp Friday night. Henry Ball from Lebanon, N. H., visited at his father's, A. H. Ball, over Sun-

The remains of Mrs. J. E. Willard, who died at her home it. Hanover, Thursday, were brought here for burial Monday, and funeral services were held at the church Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock. George Rennie from Wheelock has moved into his father's house near the saw mill, two miles below the village, and is sawing out the large stock of lumber at the mill. The school directors have appointed E. E. Orcutt, superintendent of schools and B. D. Ruggles chairman and clerk of the board, for the ensuing year.

The next Grange social is to be held Tuesday evening, April 7, and there is to be a bash supper in connection with it. All are invited.

H. A. Blake went to Stanstead, P. Q. Friday to attend the burial of William B. Palmer who died on Dec. 14. Mr. Palmer was buried beside his wife, who died April 18, 1845, and their only child. a daughter, died in April 1851, aged six years. They are buried in the Baxter family lot, his wife being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Baxter.

Quite an amount of real estate and personal property in town changed title last Wednesday: Char'es Bundy conveyed all of his real estate, more than 300 acres, and all of his stock and farming tools to his son, Byron Bundy, more than $6000 worth of property in all It is one of the best tarms in town, cutting a large amount of hay, keeping 30 cows, and other kinds of stock in proportion.

ed news Friday that their daughter, Mrs. Julius Parker, was very sick with oncumonia at Charlestown, N. H. and that it was feared she could not recover. Mrs. Hastings started for there Saturday morning. Mrs. B. U. Wells from Glover came to her father's, Dr. Colby, Friday night, and will help care for him a few days. Miss Ethel Chapman came home from Burlington, Friday night, for the spring vacation from college.

LYNDON CENTER.

A special missionary service was held Sunday evening. The principal topic was Storer College which is supported by the Free Baptist denomina ion.

Harry Steyler will move into one of the tenements in L. B. Harris' house by Elmore Quimby has begun work on his new house. Miss Grace Quimby has returned to ber bome in California. She has been spending several weeks with friends and relatives here. There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflamed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the lite out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tired of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York, will mail it.

GREENSBORO.

Mary Miller is home from St. Johns.

Jurors W. A. Jackson and Fred Good-bury.

rich returned from Newport, Friday. Charles Miller returned home last week from Laconia, where he has been taking a course at the business college. Mrs. Bert Cook has been entertaining a lady friend from South Framingham, Mass. Miss Nancy Lumsden died at Barre last week Monday and the remains were brought here for burial Thursday. Miss Lumsden was 62 years old, and a sister of Mrs. J. D. Wilson of this town, Mrs. G. W. Pette of Jericho, G. W. Lumsden and John Lumsden of this town. Mrs. Etheline Alger of Jericho is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Alden Perrin, tor a few weeks.

George W. Pettie and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Alger of Jericho were in town last week to attend the funeral of Miss Lumsden. Frank Morse has closed his labors with B. M. Willey and goes to Enosburg Falls to clerk for Asletine & Greenwood. His many friends here wish him success wherever he locates.

$100 Reward, $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive for a Suit or Overcoat (or both) cure now known to the medical tra- and we will credit you with as ternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treat. much cash as is 10 per cent of ment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Fisher, died Mon- proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best. being the great attraction.

Mrs. Battles goes to Randolph Friday to care for her husband's mother, who is

Ed's in Kirby for a week, sugar making

East St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Russell were at West Burke Friday and Saturday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Frazier.

Albert Gaskill has moved from this village to Summerville. He now occupies Miles Hovey's house and Mr. Hovey boards with him.

George Hill commenced work at Fairbanks' scale shops, Monday. Oscar Wallace and George Ward have recently commenced work at Ely's Hoe factory. The village school closed, Friday, with a sugar party.

FUTURITY STAKE.

Orleans County Fair Ass'n offers the following Futurity Stake for foals of 1903, to be raced as three-year-olds at their meeting at ROARING BROOK PARK. Barton, Vermont, During the Fall of 1906.

CONDITIONS.

Every nominator shall pay to the above named association in installments the sum of the service fee of the stallion by which the mare is in foal, to be paid as fol ows: 25 per cent. of said service fee payable April 8, 1903; 25 per cent. payable Sept. 1, 1904, when color and sex of foal shall be named; 25 per cent. payable Sept. 1, 1906. Any nominator can name as many mares as he sees fit. If a nominated mare has no living foal on Sept. 1, 1903, her nominator may substitute another mare and foal, regardless of ownership, by paying the difference in service fee, if any, but no nominator will be allowed to substitute a mare and foal without paying as much service fee as first contracted for. The whole amount received will be divided (qually between trotters and pacers, making two purses, and $100 will be added by the association to each purse.

Nominators paying two or more service fees in full will be allowed to start two colts, each in its respective class. Nominators forfeit only amonnt paid in on failure to pay any installment when due. Above named association reserves the right to declare off said stake on failure to receive a satisfactory number of nominations. Colts soid prior to Sept. 1, 1905, nomination to follow said colt. Entries close Wednesday, April 8, 1903. CONDITIONS.

Entries close Wednesday, April 8, 1903 Rules of the National Trotting Association, of which this society is a member, shall govern except as hereinafter provided. Mile heats, best three in five to harness. Hopples not barred. Any colt distancing the field is entitled to first money only, balance of field will start as in new race, for remainder of purse. Purses to be divided as follows: First, 50 per cent.; second, 25 per cent.; third, 15 per cent; fourth, 10 per cent. In entries the name, color and pedigree of mare must be given, also name of the horse to which she was bred in 1902.

D. D. BEAN, Secretary. Barton, Vermont.

YOU CANNOT AFFORD

to do up your own lace Prof. Crumplin spoke of the influence curtains. It's only once a year, and you want them to look nice and hang well.

We can give you the benefit of experience and the services of laundresses who thoroughly understand this work at a moderate cost.

Let us talk it over with you. Summer St. Laundry,

W. O. SHAW.

Citizens Telephone.

New England Telephone. Paper

DIRECT FROM THE Manufacturer.

save the jobbers and retailersprofit. send for samples at once giving the number of rooms you have to paper, send 6 cents to partly cover postage. Address

> H. BIDWELL, Dep't, Buffalo, N. Y.

St. Johnsbury Greenhouses.

A few things you may want. Vegetable and Bedding plants, Beet, Cabbage, Cauliflower, Celery, Rutabaga, Turnip, Tomatoes, etc., grown from the best seed in New England. Selected and true to name in best sorts. Plants of the above ready in May.

Bedding Plants, etc. Coleus, Geraniums, Silvia, Verbenas

Ageratum, Petunias, Cannas, Asters Zinnias. Ten week stock vines, etc.

Pansies for immediate planting, sown and grown without protection X. L. mxd strain strong plant, 50c per doz., by mail, 60c. Sweet Peas in mixture includes over sixty of the very choicest kinds, no better at any price. Separate colors, pure white, rose, scarlet, and blue shades. Sow early for good results. Nasturtiums, tall best mixture.

Dwarf best mixture. St. Johnsbury Greenhouses. C. F. GIBBS.

Business and Pleasure

Wagons.

The latest styles in Steel, Hard Rubber, Cushion and Pneumatic Tires.

Bought before the advance in price-come in and look them over. B. F. WEEKS, 20 Pearl Street.

Probate of Will. MARY BANNAHAN'S ESTATE.

MARY BANNAHAN'S ESTATE.

STATE OF VERMONT, District of Caledonia, ss. In Probate Court, held at the Probate Office in St. Johnsbury, within and for said district on the 30th day of Mar. A. D. 1903.

Aninstrument purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mary Bannahan, late of St. Johnsbury, in said district, deceased, being presented to court by John Bannahan, the Executor therein named, for Probate: It is ordered by said court that all persons concerned therein be notified to appear at a session of said court, to be held at the Probate Office in St. Johnsbury on the 18th day of April, A. D. 1903, and show cause if any they may have, against the Probate of said Will; for which purpose it is further ordered that a copy of the record of this order be published three weeks successively in the Caledonian, printed at St. Johnsbury, previous to said time appointed for hearing.

By the Court, Attest,

By the Court, Attest, WALTER P. SMITH, Judge. A true copy of record, Attest: WALTER P. SMITH, Judge.

PRESERVES

PICKLES.

We are constantly adding new varieties to our large stock of pickles and preserves. Such novelties as Candied and Marchimo Cherries, Preserved Ginger and the regular line of staple goods.

GEO. RANNEY,

St. Johnsbury.

BANKRUPT SALE

I offer for sale the store and goods belonging to S. O. Morse estate in Danville, Vt. The buildings are in one of the best locations in town, next to a thriving CREAM-ERY which is daily visited by a large number of farmers. It is well arranged for a with fine tenement, barn and garden. Large Stock General

Merchandise.

General Store Business

The whole of this property must be sold for cash. A full inventory can be seen on application to the subscriber. This is a rare opportunity to get a well established business in one of the thriftiest and pleasantest villages in Vermont.

ELMORE T. IDE, Trustee. St. Johnsbury, Apr. 1, 1903.

Cut Out This Coupon

particulars.

and hand it to us with your order your purchase.

All goods and samples marked in plain

This coupon entitles the bearer Mr.

to a special discount of 10 per cent, from the regular cash price of a Suit or Overcoat (or both) made to your measure if the order is received between today and Saturday, April 4, 1903. Over 450 styles to select from including all our new Spring and Summer goods, and medium and heavy weights as well. NO RESERVE. YOUR CHOICE FROM OUR ENTIRE LINE.

J. C. STEVENS.

ONLY THREE DAYS MORE. Saturday, April 4, is the last day we will accept orders to b finished for Easter (April 12) It is the last day also that our special offer of 10 per cent, discount will hold Read below for full

Our Suitings line of and Overcoatings from 15.00 to $25.00 is the largest and most exclusive to be found.

To those who do not care for their Suits for Easter wear must call for same on or before May 1st, but all orders must be in by SATURDAY, APRIL 4th, to be entitled to this special offer. This coupon is as good as so much cash as no discount will be made without it.

Building, Lyndonville. J. G. STEVENS, Tailor. Merchants Bank Building, St. Johnshi Branch Store, Masonic